

CHARLES DE CHRISTOPHER

MARCH 23, 1967—JANUARY 30, 2025

Charles DeChristopher passed away on January 30, 2025, at the age of 57. A devoted husband, father, grandfather, and friend, he was a man who lived with passion—especially when it came to his family, baseball, and Philadelphia sports.

Born on March 23, 1967, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Charles was a lifelong Phillies and Eagles fan, cheering for his teams through every season's highs and lows.

But his love for baseball extended beyond just being a fan—he dedicated over a decade to the Cherry Hill National Babe Ruth League, first as a coach and later as the organization's League President. He poured his heart into helping young athletes grow, both on and off the field, leaving an impact on countless families in the community.

Above all, Charles was a family man. He cherished every moment spent with his loved ones, especially his grandchildren, who were his pride and joy. Whether sharing stories, attending their activities, or enjoying time together, he ensured they knew how deeply they were loved.

Charles will be deeply missed but never forgotten—his spirit will live on in every crack of the bat, every child who takes the field, every moment spent with family, and every cheer for the Phillies and Eagles.
